

Contents

Page

About the SURE Guides

SURE Guides map

Introduction to the SURE Guides

1. Getting started	1
What is a policy brief?	4
What should be included in a policy brief?	7
How can policy briefs be used?	8
First steps and the policy brief writing team	11
Building capacity to prepare and support the use of policy briefs	13
Responding rapidly to requests for research evidence	14
Additional resources	15
References	17
2. Prioritising topics for policy briefs	1
Background	4
Which topics will be considered?	6
Which criteria will be used to set priorities?	7
Who will participate in setting the priorities?	8
What process will be used to set the priorities?	9
Additional resources	10
References	11
3. Clarifying the problem	1
What is the problem and how did it come to attention?	5
How has the problem been framed (described) and what are the consequences of this framing?	7
How big is the problem?	11
What is the cause of the problem?	14
Additional resources	17
References	18
4. Deciding on and describing options	1
Background	4
Which policy options should be presented?	5
What is known about the impacts of the different policy options?	8
How confident can we be about the likely impacts of each of the options?	11
How should information about the potential impacts of the different policy options be summarised?	13
Additional considerations	17
Additional resources	20
References	23

5. Identifying and addressing barriers to implementing policy options	1
Background	4
What barriers are there to implementing each policy option?	6
What strategies are available to address important barriers?	8
What is known about the effects of relevant implementation strategies?	9
How should information about barriers and the likely effects of strategies for addressing them be summarised?	11
Additional resources	13
References	15
6. Monitoring and evaluation	1
Background	4
Are there important uncertainties that should be addressed prior to making a decision?	5
What should potentially be monitored and how?	7
What should potentially be evaluated and how?	9
Additional resources	12
References	13
7. Organising and running policy dialogues	1
Background	4
What are the objectives of the policy dialogue?	6
Who will participate in the dialogue?	8
How will the dialogue be organised?	11
What needs to be done following the policy dialogue?	14
Additional resources	17
References	18
8. Informing and engaging stakeholders	1
Background	4
Which stakeholder groups should be informed and engaged in the preparation and use of a policy brief?	6
What contextual factors might affect efforts to engage stakeholders?	11
How will different stakeholder groups be engaged in the preparation and use of a policy brief?	12
What difference will informing and engaging stakeholders make and how will this be evaluated?	13
Additional resources	14
References	16